Florida Keys Media, LLC / Intern Program

Florida Keys Media, LLC established an Internship Program at the company's inception on March 1st 2014. In 2017 we had one intern.

Katlin Rahming, a graduate from Florida Keys Community College (FKCC), was chosen as Florida Keys Media, LLC's 2017 intern. She spent numerous hours with our Sugarloaf Key office from June 5, 2017 through August 11, 2017. Katlin experienced all aspects of the radio business. She worked with the General Manager, Sales Manager and on air staff, and the Program Director and Production Manager. Katlin was most interested in the operations of the news department. She will continue her studies at the University of South Florida pursuing a degree in journalism.

Florida Keys Media, LLC coordinated with Florida Keys Community College to make on-hands training available to students interested in broadcasting careers. Two students were chosen and given the opportunity to assist with the production and broadcasting of local high school football games.

Joy Jacob, a freshman, was chosen to produce and run the Marathon High School games on WAVK-FM. Her job responsibilities included; working with the broadcast team, ensuring reliable broadcast feed, loading and playing all commercials and producing the half-time show.

Patrick Holt, a sophomore at the FKCC Tavernier Campus was chosen to produce all Coral Shores High School games on WFKZ. His job responsibilities included; working with the broadcast team, ensuring reliable broadcast feed, loading and playing all commercials and producing the half-time show.
